

Peer Evaluation for Interviews

Evaluator _____ Date _____

Interviewer _____

Person Interviewed _____ This person makes _____

1. You chose a person to interview who is very experienced in that skill.

Not quite       Almost there       You can do it       Way to go!

2. You decided whether the item s/he makes is useful, beautiful, or both.

Not quite       Almost there       You can do it       Way to go!

3. You found out whether the skill is simple or very complicated.

Not quite       Almost there       You can do it       Way to go!!

4. You planned the questions you would ask during the interview.

Not quite       Almost there       You can do it       Way to go!

5. You recorded the interview with video or audio recording or photography.

Not quite       Almost there       You can do it       Way to go!

6. You took notes during the interview.

Not quite       Almost there       You can do it       Way to go!

7. You asked the person interviewed to sign proper permission forms.

Not quite       Almost there       You can do it       Way to go!

8. You found out how and where this person learned the skill.

Not quite       Almost there       You can do it       Way to go!

9. You found out whether some values or attitudes are passed on as part of the skill.

Not quite       Almost there       You can do it       Way to go!

What I liked most about your interview and report was _____

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

If you could improve on one element of your interview, I would suggest that you try to

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---