Writing About an Interview Worksheet

Name _________________________________ Date __________________

Instructions: Answer these three questions about your interview to help you understand how the interview affected you.

1. What surprised you?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

2. What intrigued you?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

3. What stirred or disturbed you?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

Adapted with permission from Fieldworking: Reading and Writing Research by Bonnie Sunstein and Elizabeth Chiseri-Strater. Bedford/St. Martin’s, 2002 (2nd edition).