

Unit V Oral Traditions: Swapping Stories
Lesson 5 The First Meeting of the Indians and the Europeans

Anticipation Guide -- Point of View

Name: _____ Date: _____

Directions: Show that you agree or disagree with each statement by marking an X in the correct column.

Then, write a comment about the statement in the blank space. You may add questions and statements as the lesson progresses. After reading or listening to the stories circle the statements you no longer agree with.

Agree

Disagree

1. Historical events can be seen from different points of view.

2. Stories are different when told in another language.

3. Discrimination and prejudice can work both ways between native peoples and newcomers.

4. Present day Native Americans have maintained many of their traditions.

5. It is hard for an "outsider" to understand how people from other cultures feel.

6. Language is important in maintaining folklife.