Walk around a neighborhood and observe the outsides of homes and gardening styles. Write notes about your observations in the Taking Notes column. Later, think about your notes and write some conclusions you can make about what you saw in the Making Conclusions column. Explain them to the class.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>TAKING NOTES</th>
<th>MAKING CONCLUSIONS</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. The front yard(s) have ___________________________</td>
<td>1. ___________________________</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>___________________________</td>
<td>___________________________</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>___________________________</td>
<td>___________________________</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>___________________________</td>
<td>___________________________</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

| 2. The back yard(s) have ___________________________ | 2. ___________________________ |
| ___________________________ | ___________________________ |
| ___________________________ | ___________________________ |
| ___________________________ | ___________________________ |

| 3. I saw these plants in many yards __________ | 3. ___________________________ |
| ______________________________________ | ___________________________ |
| ______________________________________ | ___________________________ |
| ______________________________________ | ___________________________ |

Name ___________________________ Date ________________
4. I saw these colors in many yards

____________________________________
____________________________________
____________________________________
____________________________________

5. I saw these ornaments or decorations in some yards

____________________________________
____________________________________
____________________________________
____________________________________

6. An expert gardener seems to live here

____________________________________
____________________________________
____________________________________
____________________________________

7. I also saw in the yard

____________________________________
____________________________________
____________________________________
____________________________________

8. I also saw in the yard

____________________________________
____________________________________
____________________________________
____________________________________