LOUISIANA FOLKLIFE BINGO (New Orleans)

I have attended a St. Joseph altar.	I know how to make pralines.	I have been down to the French Market.	Someone in my family is in a social aid and pleasure club.	I know someone who uses the expression, "I'm going to make groceries."
I have a handmade quilt in my house.	I have an altar in my yard.	I like to ride the streetcar.	I ate rice for supper last night.	There is a Mardi Gras Indian in my Family.
I have gone to Louis Armstrong Park to hear music.	I have a fig tree in my yard.		The grocery store near me sells dressed po boys.	My house has brickwork, plasterwork, or ironwork done by someone in our family.
I have been in a Mardi Gras parade.	I have been to a crawfish boil.	I march in a band.	I know someone who received silver dimes after their First Communion.	I have been to the Vietnamese market in New Orleans East.
I live in a shotgun house.	Someone in my family caught a Zulu coconut.	My church has more than 2 choirs.	I eat snowballs in the Summer.	Someone in my family lives in a camelback house.
