LOUISIANA FOLKLIFE BINGO (North Louisiana)

I know what a Dr. Watts hymn is.	My grandmother taught me how to quilt.	I know someone who uses gourd birdhouses in their yard.	I have listened to the blues in the past year.	I have been to a river or lake baptism.
I know what a fice is.	My family fries fish on a burner outside.	I have a garden with more than one kind of pea or bean.	I know someone who sells vegetables from their garden.	I eat chicken and dumplings at home.
I own a split-oak basket.	I preserved figs sometime in the last five years.		I know that teacakes aren't cakes.	My family uses shape notes to sing gospel songs.
I know someone who has competed in a rodeo at least twice.	I have (or had) a relative who plays the fiddle.	I have tatted doilies made by someone in my family.	I have a relative that owns a Catahoula cur.	There is a dogtrot house near my house.
I have eaten a spoonful of sugar in order to get rid of hiccups.	My field peas need a little help, so I use tomato relish.	My church has more than two choirs.	I've participated in or have attended an Easter Rock vigil.	I have gone to a bluegrass festival in the last year.
